Textile World Magazine

*Winter
Edition*

Clothes make brands.

In people, clothing and personality are closely related. When personality and public image are in harmony, people appear authentic. And in the case of companies, too, the way they present themselves to the outside world allows conclusions to be drawn about their own identity. Customized clothing concepts therefore not only strengthen the „we“ feeling internally, but also communicate non-verbally to the outside world as a textile business card. Wearing fashion with an individual message or your own logo not only changes the way you feel, think and behave – it also changes the way you and your team are seen. For your inspiration, we’ve put together a selection of tried-and-true styles as well as new ones. From warming sweatshirts for cooler days to a variety of fleece and softshell jackets to padded winter models, the styles are waiting for your message.

Mission: Sustainability

Giving credible substance to one’s own sustainability vision is not always easy. One convincing option is certified textiles – with your logo if you like. Can be found on p. 7, 9, 10, 11, 18, 19, 22, 27 & 33.

The prices stated in this magazine are indicative prices excluding VAT and decoration/customization.
